November 1987. Supplement for FRANCIS MOODY (1769-1821), HIS ANCESTORS, DESCENDANTS, AND RELATED FAMILIES by Clara Lorene (Cammack) Park and Wilbur Goolsby Park, Gateway Press, Inc., Baltimore, 1984.

Two documents recently found in boxes of loose papers from Chesterfield County, Virginia, that are stored in the Virginia State Archives, Richmond, Virginia, permit certain changes and additions to this book.

First, on July 18, 1987, Marshall D. Boshier, 5920 Burnet Drive, Chesterfield, Va., found the original unrecorded will of Henry Moody, Senr.(I) in Box 290 of the loose papers. Mr. Boshier copied the will in his own handwriting and also sent a photographic copy of the original will to Mrs. Clara Park. Mr. Boshier, who had lived with his parents on land once owned by Henry Moody, Sr.(I), prepared maps of the Coxendale area showing approximately where Henry Moody's 200 acres were located as well as other seventeenth and eighteenth century landmarks.

Second, on August 17, 1987, Peggy Carswell Peacock, 7730 Meadowvale, Houston, Texas, sent to Mrs. Park a photographic copy of a deposition she had found in Box 18 of the loose papers from Chesterfield County that are kept in the Virginia State Archives. This deposition reveals some hitherto unknown vital statistics about Henry Moody, Senr.(I).

These two documents and the maps verify, for the most part, our conclusions and opinions set forth in this book in 1984 and also provide new data.

Please notice that this supplement also includes corrections for some errors we made in 1984.

2 Supplement for FRANCIS MOODY, 1769-1821, HIS ANCESTORS, DESCENDANTS, AND RELATED FAMILIES northwest corner of Henry Moody's(I) land. Some other streets now on his land are Melrose, Rio Vista, Forest Glen, Lovedale Lane, Buena Vista, Arcadio, Shields Road, and Oak Road. This is west of the Richmond-Petersburg Turnpike, Route 95.

Page 12, Last Sentence. Henry Moody, Sr. bequeathed the 8 slaves to 4 sons and a son-in-law.

Page 13, Paragraph 1. The "Tragic Story of Henry Moody's Will" finally ends on a cheerful note.

Page 15, Paragraph 1. The will proves Henry, Junr.(II), Blanks of Pittsylvania County, Samuel of Chesterfield County, Thomas of Cumberland County, and Sarah wife of Charles Burton as his children.

Page 16, Last Paragraph. The new town was Gatesville. See Bosher's maps in this supplement.

Page 27, Last Paragraph. The 62 1/2 acres of Henry Moody, Jr.(II) joined his father's land on the east side. Some streets now (1987) on the land of Henry, Jr.(II) are Staten Road, Fairview Road, Benhill Drive. Henry, Jr.(II) sold this to his brother Samuel in 1785.

Page 41, Paragraphs 2 and 3. In 1794 in Pittsylvania County, the Blanks Moody who signed the nuncupative will of William Moody of Lincoln County, Ky., can be identified as William's uncle, brother of Henry Moody, Jr.(II).

Page 429, Paragraph 1. Arthur Moody was not mentioned in the 1786 will of Henry Moody, Senr.(I). On page 35 in this book Henry Moody (III) referred to "my Uncle Arthur" in his will. The wife of "Uncle Arthur" and the mother of Henry (III) were sisters. We and numerous other researchers had relied upon the will of Henry Moody (III) for our conclusion that Henry (II) and Arthur (I) were brothers. This was prior to our discovery that their wives were sisters. Then we concluded that Moody brothers married Marshall sisters. If so, why did Henry (I) not mention Arthur in his will? Maybe Henry (I) had children whom he did not mention in his will.

Page 430, Paragraph 4. In 1762 an Arther (sic) Moody was listed as a tithable in the household of a James Moody in Chesterfield County. (Tax list in loose papers in Virginia State Archives) But James Moody of Chesterfield County never mentioned a son Arthur.

Page 473, Paragraph 5. Henry Moody, Senr.(I) did bequeath the 200 acres to his son Blanks Moody of Pittsylvania County, Virginia.

Page 475. The will verifies our conclusions expressed in these paragraphs, especially Para.5.

Page 476, Paragraph 2. Omit these words: "So, our opinion is that" and omit "We do not, however, make dogmatic assertions about this. Perhaps there is 'evidence' that we do not have."

Page 491, Last Sentence. Change this to read "Samuel Moody of Chesterfield County was a son of Henry Moody, Senr.(I)."

Page 509, Paragraph 2. Thomas Moody was a son of Henry Moody, Senr.(I)

Page 509, Paragraph 3. The "new town" was Gatesville on the James River a mile or so east of the Moody land. The town was laid off out of the Glebe land of Dale Parish by order of the Vestry of the Parish, November 6, 1760. (Plat in Deed Book 6, p. 1)

Page 511, Footnote 12. Omit the words "Our opinion is that" and also change "might possibly have been" to was." Also omit the last sentence or change it to read "The unrecorded will of Henry Moody, Senr.(I), dated Nov. 16, 1786, proves that Thomas Moody was his son."

Page 1, Paragraph 2. The age of Henry Moody, Senr.(I) on December 21, 1769, was 65 years or thereabouts. Thus, he was born ca. 1704.

Page 1. Henry Moody, Senr.(I) was an apprentice, whose contract with his employer ended ca. 1725 when he was approximately 21 years old. After the age of fourteen years, the age of discretion, he could have entered into an apprenticeship himself. If, however, he was an orphan under 14 years old, he could have been bound out by the Parish Vestry under order of a county court, which in this case probably would have been the Henrico County Court. In any event, Henry Moody(I) was literate, and his signatures show that his handwriting was neat and legible. Since he was paid by Chesterfield County and by some estates for making coffins (pp. 7, 8, 10), one might reasonably conclude that he was skillful with carpenter tools and that he might possibly have been a cooper who made tobacco casks for nearby tobacco warehouses, such as Osbornes.

Page 1. On December 21, 1769, Henry Moody, Senr.(I) had been married to his present wife 42 years last August. Thus, he was married to this wife in August 1727, when he was approximately 23 years old. His children could have been born from ca. 1728 through early 1750's. This wife was doubtless the mother of all his children. Since he did not mention her in his will, she must have died prior to November 1786 and after December 1769.

Page 5, Paragraph 2. In 1749 Henry Moody, Senr.(I) could possibly have had a child who was approximately 21 years old.

Page 10, Paragraph 4. In the decade of 1770's, Henry Moody, Senr.(I) was indeed becoming a septuagenarian. His age during that decade was from 66 years through 76 years.

Page 11, Paragraphs 1 and 9. In 1780 Henry Moody, Senr.(I) was approximately 76 years old. He was about 77 years old when the British surrendered at Yorktown on October 19, 1781. He lived to be about 82 years old.

November 1987. Supplement for FRANCIS MOODY (1769-1821), HIS ANCESTORS, DESCENDANTS, AND RELATED FAMILIES by Clara Lorene (Cammack) Park and Wilbur Coolsby Park, Gateway Press, Inc., Baltimore, 1984.

Two documents recently found in boxes of loose papers from Chesterfield County, Virginia, that are stored in the Virginia State Archives, Richmond, Virginia, permit certain changes and additions to this book.

First, on July 18, 1987, Marshall D. Boshier, 5920 Burnet Drive, Chesterfield, Va., found the original unrecorded will of Henry Moody, Senr.(I) in Box 290 of the loose papers. Mr. Boshier copied the will in his own handwriting and also sent a photographic copy of the original will to Mrs. Clara Park. Mr. Boshier, who had lived with his parents on land once owned by Henry Moody, Sr.(I), prepared maps of the Coxendale area showing approximately where Henry Moody's 200 acres were located as well as other seventeenth and eighteenth century landmarks.

Second, on August 17, 1987, Peggy Carswell Peacock, 7730 Meadowvale, Houston, Texas, sent to Mrs. Park a photographic copy of a deposition she had found in Box 18 of the loose papers from Chesterfield County that are kept in the Virginia State Archives. This deposition reveals some hitherto unknown vital statistics about Henry Moody, Senr.(I).

These two documents and the maps verify, for the most part, our conclusions and opinions set forth in this book in 1984 and also provide new data.

Please notice that this supplement also includes corrections for some errors we made in 1984.

Some other streets now on his land are Melrose, Rio Vista, Forest Glen, Lovedale Lane, Buena Vista, Arcadio, Shields Road, and Oak Road. This is west of the Richmond-Petersburg Turnpike, Route 95.
- Page 12, Last Sentence. Henry Moody, Sr. bequeathed the 8 slaves to 4 sons and a son-in-law.

- Page 13, Paragraph 2. Omit the last sentence. That "opinion" is wrong. -
- Page 14, Paragraph 1. See above, Page 2, Paragraph 3.
- Page 15, Paragraph 1. The will proves Henry, Junr.(II), Blanks of Pittsylvania County, Samuel of Chesterfield County, Thomas of Cumberland County, and Sarah wife of Charles Burton as his children.
- Page 6, Last Paragraph. The new town was Gatesville. See Bosher's maps in this supplement.
- Page 27, Last Paragraph. The 62 1/2 acres of Henry Moody, Jr.(II) joined his father's land on the east side. Some streets now (1987) on the land of Henry, Jr.(II) are Staten Road, Fairview Road, Benhill Drive. Henry, Jr.(II) sold this to his brother Samuel in 1785.
- Page 41, Paragraphs 2 and 3. In 1794 in Pittsylvania County, the Blanks Moody who signed the nuncupative will of William Moody of Lincoln County, Ky., can be identified as William's uncle, brother of Henry Moody, Jr.(II).
- Page 429, Paragraph 1. Arthur Moody was not mentioned in the 1786 will of Henry Moody, Senr.(I). On page 35 in this book Henry Moody (III) referred to "my Uncle Arthur" in his will. The wife of "Uncle Arthur" and the mother of Henry (III) were sisters. We and numerous other researchers had relied upon the will of Henry Moody (III) for our conclusion that Henry (II) and Arthur (I) were brothers. This was prior to our discovery that their wives were sisters. Then we concluded that Moody brothers married Marshall sisters. If so, why did Henry (I) not mention Arthur in his will? Maybe Henry (I) had children whom he did not mention in his will.
- Page 430, Paragraph 4. In 1762 an Arther (sic) Moody was listed as a tithable in the household of a James Moody in Chesterfield County. (Tax list in loose papers in Virginia State Archives) But James Moody of Chesterfield County never mentioned a son Arthur.
- Page 473, Paragraph 5. Henry Moody, Senr.(I) did bequeath the 200 acres to his son Blanks Moody of Pittsylvania County, Virginia.
- Page 475. The will verifies our conclusions expressed in these paragraphs, especially Para.5.
- Page 475., Last Paragraph. Omit this paragraph. The will makes this paragraph unnecessary.
- Page 476, Paragraph 2. Omit these words: "So, our opinion is that" and omit "We do not, however, make dogmatic assertions about this. Perhaps there is 'evidence' that we do not have."
- Page 491, Last Sentence. Change this to read "Samuel Moody of Chesterfield County was a son of Henry Moody, Senr.(I)."
- Page 509, Paragraph 2. Thomas Moody was a son of Henry Moody, Senr.(I)
- Page 509, Paragraph 3. The "new town" was Gatesville on the James River a mile or so east of the Moody land. The town was laid off out of the Glebe land of Dale Parish by order of the Vestry of the Parish, November 6, 1760. (Plat in Deed Book 6, p. 1)
- Page 511, Footnote 12. Omit the words "Our opinion is that" and also change "might possibly have been" to was." Also omit the last sentence or change it to read "The unrecorded will of Henry Moody, Senr.(I), dated Nov. 16, 1786, proves that Thomas Moody was his son."

Page 1, Paragraph 2. The age of Henry Moody, Senr.(I) on December 21, 1769, was 65 years or thereabouts. Thus, he was born ca. 1704.

Page 1. Henry Moody, Senr.(I) was an apprentice, whose contract with his employer ended ca. 1725 when he was approximately 21 years old. After the age of fourteen years, the age of discretion, he could have entered into an apprenticeship himself. If, however, he was an orphan under 14 years old, he could have been bound out by the Parish Vestry under order of a county court, which in this case probably would have been the Henrico County Court. In any event, Henry Moody(I) was literate, and his signatures show that his handwriting was neat and legible. Since he was paid by Chesterfield County and by some estates for making coffins (pp. 7, 8, 10), one might reasonably conclude that he was skillful with carpenter tools and that he might possibly have been a cooper who made tobacco casks for nearby tobacco warehouses, such as Osbornes.

Page 1. On December 21, 1769, Henry Moody, Senr.(I) had been married to his present wife 42 years last August. Thus, he was married to this wife in August 1727, when he was approximately 23 years old. His children could have been born from ca. 1728 through early 1750's. This wife was doubtless the mother of all his children. Since he did not mention her in his will, she must have died prior to November 1786 and after December 1769.

Page 5, Paragraph 2. In 1749 Henry Moody, Senr.(I) could possibly have had a child who was approximately 21 years old.

Page 10, Paragraph 4. In the decade of 1770's, Henry Moody, Senr.(I) was indeed becoming a septuagenarian. His age during that decade was from 66 years through 76 years.

Page 11, Paragraphs 1 and 9. In 1780 Henry Moody, Senr.(I) was approximately 76 years old. He was about 77 years old when the British surrendered at Yorktown on October 19, 1781. He lived to be about 82 years old.

There are two documents in the Judge of Ordinary Book, Marion County, South Carolina, that apply to this estate. They are: On 2 September 1811, a citation was issued to Mrs. Esther Moody on the estate of Robert Moody.¹² The other was on 17 October 1811, when Mrs. Esther Moody was administratrix of the Robert Moody Estate.¹³ The records showing the disbursement of the estate are on file in the Marion County records. It was interesting to note that $30.00 was paid the guardian of a child for boarding and clothing for one year, and the tuition fee was $1.00.

large family in the right ways of living. He was a mason. Tapley died about 1843, and he was buried on the plantation of William D. Roberts in Buck Swamp.¹⁸ Susannah died about 1853, and her will was filed for probate on 29 November 1853. Tapley H. Moody and Jesse H. Hayes were named as administrators, and her twelve children were named as heirs.¹⁹

Robert Moody, Sr. purchased 250 acres of land on 6 January 1796, from Hisorah Burket for three pounds sterling. This land was part of two tracts; 150 acres granted to Isaac Atkinson on 1 October 1787, conveyed from Atkinson to Hiet to Burket. The other 100 acres were part of a 1000 acre grant to Isaac Atkinson on 30 March 1789, conveyed from Atkinson to Hiet to Burket. Solomon Moody and Isaac Atkinson were witnesses to this deed.⁶

Robert sold to Thomas Page a 27 year old negro woman named Cloe Abant, and a 17 month old child named Bett Abant for $601.00 on 28 January 1805. This transaction was witnessed by Cloe Rogers and William Price.⁷

On 14 November 1808, Robert purchased 100 (1000?) acres of land from Enos Tart for $500.00. This land was part of a tract granted to Enos Tart on 2 May 1808. This transaction was witnessed by Charles Moody, Mathew Moody and Martha Moody.⁸

Robert sold Samuel Smith, Jr. 100 acres of land for $100.00. This land was part of a tract granted to Benjamin Harralson on 17 December 1789,⁹ situated on Buck Swamp and on the southwest side of the Little Pee Dee River. This transaction was dated 14 January 1809, and was witnessed by Robert Moody and Mathew Moody. On 18 March 1809, Easter Moody, wife of Robert Moody, Sr., signed a release of dower rights.¹⁰

On 22 August 1810, Robert Moody, Sr. died intestate, leaving Easter, his widow, and ten living children. Charles Moody was the administrator of his estate. Tapley Moody and others filed a partition to divide 1000 acres of land. The following heirs were named in this instrument: Easter Moody, his widow; Charles Moody, son; Tapley Moody, son; James Moody, son; Daniel Moody, son, who died leaving Josiah Moody, his son and only heir; Mary Moody, who died, leaving three children, Mary, Samuel, Delilah Foxworth; Robert Moody, son; Thomas Moody, son; John Moody, son, who has since died leaving Nancy, his wife, and three children, James, Solomon and Mary; and 5 infant sons and daughters, Jesse, Penna, Willey, Harriet and Mulkey. Easter was to get one-third of the estate, and the children were to get one-thirteenth of the remaining two-thirds, the children of the deceased sons and daughters getting their parents part. There were five men appointed to see if the 1000 acres, which Robert purchased from Enos Tart, should be divided among the heirs or if the land should be sold and the monies divided. These men, Enos Tart, Thomas Harlee, Robert Moody, Jesse Bethea and Elisha Bethea reported on 13 February 1813, that the land should be sold, the land being valued at $375.00.¹¹

Chapter VIII

CHARLES MOODY, SR. AND HIS DESCENDANTS

CHARLES MOODY, SR.

Charles Moody, Sr. was born about 1735. We do not know who his father was, but we offer this information. In Cook's, RAMBLES IN THE PEE DEE BASIN, he mentions James Moody, who owned a large acreage at Cashaway ferry, South Carolina, in 1737.¹ In South Carolina Colonial Plats, we found a grant to Charles Moody for 100 acres of land on the south side of the Pee Dee River on the Hurriciane Creek, the grant being certified on 14 April 1770.² Cashaway ferry and Hurriciane Creek were in the same area. This area is miles, maybe as many as 25, from Georgetown District, Prince George Parish where we next see Charles. It is possible that the Charles Moody who was commissioned on 25 September 1775, as 2nd Lieut. in Col. Powell's Regiment of Militia, St. David's Parish could be this Charles Moody.

The next mention of Charles Moody, Sr. in the records is a land grant in Georgetown District, Prince George Parish. Charles and Cortney Allen were granted 920 acres of land on 18 November 1789. This land was situated on the southwest side of Buck Swamp, bounded by Isaac Atkinson's land, Jeremiah Allen's land, by John Smith's land and all other sides vacant land.³

There are many business transactions in the records for Charles Moody, Sr., and we want to mention some of these. The lands described are all in the area of present day Marion-Dillon Counties, South Carolina.

On 29 April 1790, Charles leased and released 250 acres of land granted to Benjamin Harralson on 7 December 1789. This land was situated on Buck Swamp, on the southwest side of the Little Pee Dee River, by John Smith's land, by Charles and Robert Moody's land, all other sides were vacant land. This transaction was witnessed by Robert Moody, Jr. and Lewis Harralson.⁴

On 13 September 1791, a tract of 2000 acres of land was surveyed for John Brown and

Charles Moody. This land was also situated on the south side of the Little Pee Dee River and on the south side of Buck Swamp. Whether or not this land was actually granted to them is not known.⁵

On 26 March 1795, Charles sold to Tapley Moody 50 acres, more or less, for 50 pounds. This land was situated on the south side of Bear (Buck?) Swamp, on the northwest side of Joes Branch, following to the mouth of the branch, and bounded by Daniel Herring's land, and the northwest side bounded by Robert Moody, Sr.'s land, and Charles Moody's land. It states in the deed, "a part of the said tract of land where on the said Charles Moody, Sr. now lives."⁶

On 1 December 1796, Charles sold 125 acres of land to Ann Barnes (Thomas Barnes) for 10 pounds. This land was situated on Peghorn Branch, Joes Branch, and on the old mill path. This deed was witnessed by Sherod Johnson and Elias Barnes.⁷

On 5 February 1798, Charles was granted 400 acres of land, situated on the southwest side of the Little Pee Dee River and on Buck Swamp. This land was bounded on the north by Daniel Herring, Sr.'s land, and by land granted to Mr. White, and Benjamin Harralson, Sr., on the south by land granted to Charles Moody, Sr., John Smith, and Jeremiah Allen and on the east by land granted to Lewis Harralson and Zedekiah Owen.⁸

On 20 July 1800, Charles sold 100 acres of land to Daniel Herring, Jr. This land was situated on the lower side of Joes Branch, bounded by Wallis Field, Buck Swamp and John Smith's land. The deed was witnessed by John Ford and Charles Moody. Millender Moody signed a release of dower rights. Captain Charles Moody witnessed her release and signed his name Charles Moody, Jr.⁹

On 6 August 1805, Charles Moody, Sr.'s name appeared in a land description, a grant for 200 acres to Solomon S. Moody, said land being on the southwest side of the Little Pee Dee River, bounded by Major Robert Moody, Samuel Smith, William Herring and Charles Moody, Sr.¹⁰

On 29 December 1810, Charles sold two negroes to Malcom Monroe for $100.00.¹¹ On 11 October 1811, he deeded a girl Diannah to Malcom.¹²

On 24 January 1814, Charles deeded to Thomas Robins, 1000 acres of land which was granted to Isaac Atkinson on 3 March 1789, and 460 acres granted to Charles Moody and Cortney Allen on 18 November 1784, this land being conveyed from Charles Moody to Robert Moody to Charles Moody and now from Charles Moody, Sr. to Thomas Robins. This deed was witnessed by Samuel Smith, Salathiel Moody and James Whitehead. Jesse Moody certified Milly Moody's release of dower rights.¹³

On 17 December 1815, a deed from Charles Moody, Sr. to "Thomas Moody, my son" was recorded. Barfield Moody and Salathiel Moody witnessed this deed.¹⁴

On 27 December 1815, Charles Moody, Sr. deeded three negroes, Peg and her two daughters, Molly and Sally, to Barfield Moody for "the love and affection I bear my son Barfield." This was witnessed by C. Daniel.¹⁵

On 18 February 1816, Charles signed a note to Enos Tart, Esqr. for $1286.48 with interest. This note was witnessed by Johnsen Turbeville, John Turbeville and Cherry Tart. This appears to be a note to Enos Tart for 931 acres of land situated on the west side of Buck Swamp, 931 acres of the 1000 acres granted to Enos Tart on 12 April 1808, conveyed from said Tart to Robert Moody, Sr., and now the property of Charles Moody.¹⁶ The other 69 acres of the 1000 were sold to Samuel Smith.¹⁷

On 10 October 1818, Charles Moody, Sr. sold two slaves to "Salathiel Moody, son." This deed was witnessed by Charles Moody, Jr. and Mathew Moody.¹⁸

On 12 November 1818, Charles sold 200 acres of land to Thomas Moody, son of said Charles, for $200.00. This land was part of a tract granted to Benjamin Harralson, Sr. This deed was witnessed by Barfield Moody, Solomon Herring and Roger Moody.¹⁹

On 13 January 1819, Charles sold land to Thomas Moody "my son" for $250.00. This land was on the south side of Buck Swamp, granted to Benjamin Harralson, Sr., and conveyed from Harralson to Charles Moody, Sr.²⁰

On 25 February 1819, Charles was involved in a quit claim deed with James and Roger Moody to Charles Moody, Jr. This deed has been previously quoted in detail in Chapter I, "Roger Moody."²¹

In the 1830 Marion County, South Carolina Federal Census, Charles was 90 to 100 years old, living alone and having no slaves. His date of death is not known to us.

The purposes of listing all of these deeds were to show his vast land dealings, the disposition of his eight slaves (on the 1800 Marion County Census) to his two sons and son-in-law, and to name the people owning adjoining land. You will note there were not any deeds to Roger Moody although much land was conveyed from Charles to Roger.

An application to the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution was submitted on 14 December 1927, listing the names of the children of Charles Moody as follows: Roger Moody, Charles Moody, Salathiel Moody, Thomas Moody, Robert Moody, Barfield Moody and Celia Moody. This application was returned and no further action was taken by the applicant due to her death.

Evidence indicates Charles Moody, Sr. was the father of our old ancestor Roger, but we have not found any records to attest to this.

Moody Family History
by William Norton*1
1845-1929

Soon after the Revolutionary War our forefather came to America and located in Robeson County, North Carolina.

James Moody Married a Miss Owen and they had four children: Jesse, Tap, Dave and James II.

James Moody II married a Miss Roberts and they had eleven children: Arvin, Gadi, Curtis, Merritt, Roberts, Allen, James, Emanuel, Mary, Gatsie, Alafair and Stacy Ann.

Roberts Moody married a Miss Mary McCormick and their five children were born in North Carolina, namely Nepsie, Amy, Flora, Manila, and James Archibald who was born March 6, 1831.

James Archibald Moody Married Miss Helen Taylor of Wayne County, Miss. She was born May 7, 1837. They had 12 children: Ellie, James Emory, George Roberts, Eugenia, William Oliver, Annie Helena, Flora, Columbia, Maggie, Edward Austin, Nellie Currie, and Mattie Irene.

In counting backwards by generations you will see that the first James Moody must have been the one who came to America after The Revolutionary War, from Scotland.

My brothers and me and my children make seven generations and I intend to publish it sometime.

The Moodys came to Mississippi in 1836, settling in Wayne, Green and Pearl River Counties, except Curtis Moody who lived and died in North Carolina, and Roberts Moody (our Great grandfather) who came to Mississippi with his young family the following year, 1837. This family settled in the eastern part of Wayne County not far from old Isney, Ala, and the descendants are still in possession of the property and living on it, one hundred years later.

James Archibald Moody (our grandfather) was six years old when the family migrated to Miss., moving their household possessions in hogsheads drawn by horses. Roberts Moody died a few years after coming to Miss., and his young son, James, had to assume the responsibility of providing for his mother and sisters.*2 early in life. He lived his entire life on the farm where the family located when they came to Miss., except for the time he was away in service during the War Between the States.

Cousin Will Says "We are descended from Scotch with a smidgen of royal English, No Irish, whatsoever." He goes on to say, "When I was in the old country, Robson County, N.C.*3 in 1900, I visited in the old Curtis Moody home where his granddaughter, Mrs. Jones, was living. She showed me a photograph of a group of five generations. I saw the place where my grandfather, Roberts Moody's gin house stood. My cousin, Major Byrd, with whom I was staying, took me around and showed me many places that my mother had told me about in her life time." "There is a scope of country in Robson County where there are so many Scotch people living that it was, and still is called "Scotland". There were people named *4 McDonald, McCuen, McQuaig, McCallister, McRee, McDougal, McBride, McGowan, McClellan and others. This is where the Moodys were from.

In speaking of our grandfather, James Archibald Moody cousin Will Said "I never knew a truer, straighter, purer, more upright man. I have a right to know where of I speak for I have known him all my life. He was a father to me when I needed a father. I worked for him and by his side for several years and I can truthfully say I never knew a better man. He was of a quiet unruffled disposition, in good spirits and a fine Christian Character." He also said, "We have a right to be proud of our ancestors. There has never been one of them accused of wrong doing, no lawsuits, no trouble with neighbors, but an upright Christian people."

MOODY FAMILY HISTORY.

Cousin Will Norton says:

"Soon after the Revolutionary War our forefathers came to America and located in Robson County, North Carolina.

① James Moody married a Miss Owen, and they had four children: Jesse, Tap, Dave and James.

② James Moody, 2nd, married a Miss Roberts, and they had 12 children: Arvin, Gadl, Curtis, Merritt, Roberts, Allen, James, Emanuel, Mary, Gatsie, Alafair and Stacy Ann.

③ Roberts Moody married a Miss Mary Ann McGinnis, and their five children were born in N.C., namely: Nepsie, Amy, Flora, Manila, and James Archibald who was born March 8, 1831. They migrated to Miss. in 1837. (our branch of family)

James Archibald Moody married Miss Helena Taylor of Wayne County, Miss., who was born May 27, 1837. They had 12 children: Eliza, James, Mary, George, Roberts, Augusta, William, Oliver, Annie, Helena, Flora, Collins. (Mallie - name)

By counting backward by generations you will see that the first James Moody must have been the one who came to America soon after the Revol. War, from Scotland)

My brother and me, and my children, make seven generations. (Mallie - name)

The Moodys all came to Mississippi in 1830, settling in Wayne, Green and Pearl River Counties, except Curtis Moody who lived and died in Carolina, and Roberts Moody (our great-grandfather) who came to Miss. with his young family the following year, 1837. This family settled in the eastern part of Wayne County not far from old Isney, Ala., and the descendants are still in possession of the property and living on it, one hundred years later. James Archibald Moody (our grandfather) was six years old when the family migrated to Miss., moving their household possessions in hogsheds drawn by horses. Roberts Moody died a few years after coming to Miss., and his young son, James, had to assume the responsibility of providing for his mother and sisters early in life. He lived his entire life on the farm where the family located when they came to Miss., except for the time he was away in service during the War Between the States. (Mallie - name)

Cousin Will says "We are descended from Scotch with a 'smidgen' of royal English. No Irish, whatever." (Rowland)

He goes on to say "When I was in the old country, - Robson County, N.C. in 1900, I visited in the old Curtis Moody home where his granddaughter, a Mrs. Jones was living. She showed me a photograph of a group of five generations. I saw the place where my grandfather, Roberts Moody's gin house stood. My cousin, Major M. Byrd, with whom I was staying, took me around and showed me many places that my mother had told me about in her life time. "There is a scope of country in Robson County where there were so many Scotch people living that it was, and still is, called 'Scotland'. "There were people named McDonald, McBride, McGowan, McCormick, McCuen, McCraig, McAllister, McKee, McLellan, and others, also Roberts and Owen."

In speaking of our grandfather, Jas. A. Moody, cousin Will goes on to say, "I never knew a straighter, truer, more upright man, and I have a right to know whereof I speak, for I have known him all my life. He was a father to me when I needed one. I worked for him, and by his side, for several years, and I can truthfully say I never knew a better man. He was of a quiet, unruffled disposition, in good spirits and a fine Christian character."

He also adds, "We have a right to be proud of our ancestors. There has never been one of them accused of wrong doing, - no lawsuits, no trouble with neighbors, but an upright Christian people."

Grandma Moody died of a stroke of paralysis Nov. 9, 1909, and Grandpa died April 18, 1912. Both are buried in Big Rock church Cemetery near the old home. They were both life-long members of Frost Bridge Methodist church, and then Big Rock church after it was organized. (Mallie - name)
I don't know much of Grandma's people, the Taylors, and I don't know where either for she was equally as fine a woman as he was a man. (Mallie - name)

Grandpa Moody's parents are buried in an old cemetery near Isney, Ala.

One knew that the state of his health, but he so often complained that nothing serious was thought of. Tuesday, Feb. 28th, at 10 a.m., was the day and hour set for the burial. Early that morning our people were up and making their way to Cross Roads (some coming fifteen to eighteen miles) that they might pay their last respects to the honored dead. Our rivers having just attained a freshet here prevented the Masons from assembling to bury the body. With Masonic honors.

The Knights of Labor, of which Dr. Moody was a careful and considerate member, were on hand, and by permission from the family, bore the remains to the church from whence they deposited them in the grave, where they will remain until the Grand Master Workman's gavel will call all together giving to each his dues. Rev. Mr. M. J. Marble, our preacher in charge, made some very appropriate remarks on the life and usefulness of our deceased friend.

To say that Dr. Thos. H. Moody will be missed from among us, would not tell him how sadly. As a physician he will be a loss; as a friend it will be hard to replace him; as a neighbor none will be more regretted, though he be dead his influence will be felt for years to come. The vast concourse of people assembled was enough to bear testimony to what I have said, and had our rivers not been almost impassible, and our people not engaged in getting out stock for fear of losing them the thing would have been much greater.

To the family we tender our most heartfelt sympathy; and may the good Lord help them bear their affliction, and may they remember some of the last words of husband and father, "I know that my redeemer liveth." "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want."

RENO.

K. McLeod, it is therefore ordered by the Board that said J. K. McLeod be allowed the sum of $217.15 payable out of the common school fund, and the sum of $4.53 payable out of the general county fund as reimbursement for the money stolen as aforesaid and made good or paid into the county treasury by said J. K. McLeod.

Ordered, That Wesley Ward be appointed overseer on Bay Road from Little Red Creek to bridge on Rocky Creek for balance of year 1888, vice Klox Ward removed.

[Up to going to press the Board is still in session. Balance of proceedings will appear next week.—Ed.]

When we see a man on our streets now a days from the North-west we exactly know his business. Land in this favored clime he must and will have, and they all well know what they are doing.

Mother Greets Moody At Front Gate

'Til Stick Close To Home,' Says Billy Frank Moody

Billy Frank Moody, ex-inmate of Camp 6, Mississippi state penitentiary, spent his first night in 10 years as a free man sitting at a table in his mother's home in Keno.

On the table were a radio receiver and a transmitter, the fruits of Moody's labor and the instruments by which he nearly lost his chances for freedom.

"I was listening to some of the boys talking on the receiver," said Moody, "and of offhandedly threw the switch on the transmitter."

Turns Switch Off
"Oh, oh," I said to myself, "you put it on a radio broke the law." So I turned it off."

Now, now a blue-eyed, blond six-footer of 29, is known around the world as "the broadcasting convict."

It was he who was "discovered" in October conducting unlicensed radio broadcasts from his prison cell and trusty's guard booth at the Parchman prison.

Since August he had been working for a suspension of sentence. The future following his "discovery" was uncertain.

The local press carried sensational stories indicating that a desperate criminal had been uncovered using an illicit radio transmitter in a campaign to gain his freedom.

Could Have Been Goat

But a confirmed broadcast ing is against FCC rules, state and prison authorities easily could have made Moody the goat to cover up their own red-faces.

But Supt. Marvin Wiggins of Parchman and Gov. Wright, both of whom knew of Moody's hard-earned knowledge of radio, assured the Chronicle-Star and Advertiser that the publicity would not affect their views on Moody's case.

"Newspapers called me from London, England, and Paris, France," said Moody, "wanting to talk to me. But Mr. Wiggins wouldn't even talk to them himself."

The Chronicle on Oct. 28 ran the ungarbled story of Moody and his offense. "If it hadn't been for the Chronicle's story and editorial (Nov. 4)," Moody said Thursday, "I don't know what would have happened to me."

"That story was read over the air by dozens of hams and when the editorial came out it was read too. It sure made me feel better to know the real story was being told."

"The first of my friends to read the story was Bud Feltner of Tule Wagon. His call is W5FSS. Then Robert Barr, W5GHE, of Spring Hill, La., read it and the editorial. I went to thank all my hundreds of friends on the 75-meter band who wrote me and sent me messages after that."

Sentenced For Holdup

Moody, who has spent all his manhood to date as a convict, was sent to prison after a $35 holdup of a Wade grocery. His sentence was seven years.

It was hard, awful hard, at first to be free. "The day my book.

"Sometimes during the day I'd chop cotton and not even see it. Thinking about something in the book I couldn't understand."

But he finished the course, received a diploma. Every penny of the money he got went into radio equipment. He built receivers, transmitters, table models and portables, began repairing the prison radios. To his knowledge he added that of electricity and became the most valuable handy-man in camp.

Then he began experimenting with the range of his transmitters. Soon he could broadcast thousands of miles. "I had a lot of fun," he said. "I told people I was broadcasting from Vanelevere. Some of them asked questions, but nobody ever got suspicious."

"They knew I was doing it down here at home when my brother-in-law's brother was killed in Puerto Rico. I got the details from a ham there and sent them to the family here. I talked to lots of friends here."

He read the Chronicle's story over the air. After that I got letters from all over the country. They were the nicest letters a man ever received."

About his future, Moody is determined. "I'm going to stick close to home for six months till I get to get off me. I'm going to try to keep a radio repair business."

Maybe soon the governor'll give me a pardon. I've got to get my citizenship back before I can take the FCC exam for a radio license. If I do get it I want to get a job as radio operator on a ship."

The ham grapevine is evident. "I'll know. Several days before his suspension was announced, Moody said he began hearing over the radio strange talk about the 'contract for W5NNK'."

The "contract," he said, "was a suspension awaiting the governor's signature. One ham said it might be the 'top man' in the DEATH OF DR. T. H. MOODY.

Basin, Miss., March 2, 1883.

Editor Democrat Star:

Our old friend and physician, Dr. T. H. Moody, died at his home at Cross Roads, Miss., Feb. 26, 1883. Never before has a death caused so much universal sorrow. It seemed that the cold, bleak winds from the north on last Monday and Tuesday, mourned as if heighted with the sad news. The news of the Doctor's death was carried by courier and neighbor Sunday afternoon until by nightfall it was known fifteen to twenty miles around. Our people could hardly believe that one so much prized had been suddenly taken away, although almost every one knew that the Doctor was in bad health, but he so often complained that nothing serious was thought of. Tuesday, Feb. 28th, at 10 a.m., was the day and hour set for the burial. Early that morning our people were up and making their way to Cross Roads (some coming fifteen to eighteen miles) that they might pay their last respects to the honored dead. Our rivers having just attained a freshet line prevented the Masons from assembling to bury the body with Masonic honors.

The Knights of Labor, of which Dr. Moody was a careful and considerate member, were on hand, and by permission from the family, bore the remains to the church from whence they deposited them in the grave, where they will remain until the Grand Master W. of China's gavel will call all together paying to each his dues. Rev. Mr. M. J. Martine, our preacher in charge, made some very appropriate remarks on the life and usefulness of our deceased friend.

To say that Dr. Thomas H. Moody was a valued man among us, would not tell him fairly. As a physician he will be a loss; as a friend it will be hard to replace him; as a neighbor none will be more regretted than he be dead.

J. Garrard, J. Pettig, E. N. Ramsay and R. A. Vandevere as sureties thereon, which bond is hereby approved, and it is ordered that such a license be granted and issued to the said George Arndt as prayed for in his said petition.

Antonio Franco having filed his petition for the purpose of obtaining a license to retail vinous and spirituous liquors in quantities less than one gallon, at his place of business in Ocean Springs, in beat No. 4 of Jackson county, and it appearing that his petition is sufficient, that the same has remained on file in the clerk's office for the time required by law and that his bond is signed by Mrs. Charlotte Cash, E. The Legislature of the State of Mississippi now in session, having passed an act authorizing this Board to reimburse J. K. McLeod for county funds stolen from him as County Treasurer, on the night of April 23, 1886, which act has been approved by the Governor, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Board that the loss of said funds was caused by an act of carelessness or negligence on the part of said J. K. McLeod; it is therefore ordered by the Board that said J. K. McLeod be allowed the sum of $17.15 payable out of the common school fund, and the sum of $453 payable out of the general county fund as reimbursement for the money stolen as aforesaid and made good or paid into the county treasury by said J. Attache kidnaped

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican republic (AP) — The air attache of the U.S. Embassy here was kidnaped today—the third American diplomat kidnaped in Latin America since September.

Police and the U.S. Embassy said Lt. Col. Donald J. Crowley was seized on a polo field near the El Embajador Hotel.

An informant at the hotel said he saw the 47-year-old Crowley taken away by four or five gunmen at 7:40 a.m. He said they arrived at the polo field in a white car.

The embassy would not confirm reports that Crowley's kidnapers intended to use him as ransom for a score of political prisoners held here.

Among those prisoners mentioned was Maximiliano Gomez, secretary-general of the Dominican Popular Movement, a Communist-oriented group, who has been held on charges of terrorism for two months.

Crowley, born in El Paso, Texas, arrived in the Dominican Republic in May 1968. He has a wife, Nancy, three daughters and a son.

The polo field where he was kidnaped was the site of the initial landings of U.S. troops, who entered the Dominican Republic in 1965 on the orders of President Lyndon B. Johnson in the midst of civil political strife.

The Dominican Republic is presently the scene of campaigning for May's presidential election.

1/17/1930 UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCE

Mr. Dick Moody, a worthy citizen, had an unpleasant experience, and one that came near resulting disastrously. He left here Saturday morning in a small boat, and in the neighborhood of Point Aux Chene ran aground three times. The last time he got out of the boat and in attempting to free his boat got mire d and at one time was up to his neck in the water. Finally he managed to get himself ashore and made a fire and dried out, but had to remain there all day and night without any food. He was found by Gus and Tom Moody and Pete Bosarge and brought home Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. In the meantime John Moody and Martin Henrich started out to hunt for him, and Joe Pelham also sent out boats for him, his family being alarmed by his not returning home in a reasonable time. With the exception of being hungry and tired out he was none the worse for his experience, but says he will be careful hereafter how he goes out alone in a boat.

Editor Democrat-Star:

Our old friend and physician, Dr.

T. H. Moody, died at his home in Cross Roads, Miss., Feb. 26, 1888.

Never before has a death caused so much universal sorrow. It seemed that the cold, bleak winds from the north on last Monday and Tuesday mounted as if heighted with the sad news. The news of the Doctor's death was carried by courier and neighbor Sunday afternoon until by nightfall it was known fifteen to twenty miles around. Our people could hardly believe that one so much prized had been suddenly taken away, although almost every one knew that the Doctor was in bad health, but he so often complained that nothing serious was thought of. Tuesday, Feb. 28th, at 10 a.m., was the day and hour set for the burial. Early that morning our people were up and making their way to Cross Roads (some coming fifteen to eighteen miles) that they might pay their last respects to the honored dead. Our rivers having just attained a freshetide prevented the Masons from assembling to bury the body with Masonic honors.

The Knights of Labor, of which Dr. Moody was a careful and considerate member, were on hand, and by permission from the family, bore the remains to the church from whence they deposited them in the grave, where they will remain until the Grand Master Workman's grave will call all together. It is to such his dues. Rev. Mr. M. J. Mangle, our preacher in charge, made some very appropriate remarks on the life and usefulness of our deceased friend.

To say that Dr. Thos. H. Moody will be missed among us, would not be true. Truly, as a physician he will be a loss; as a friend it will be hard to replace him; as a neighbor none will be more regretted, though he be dead.

that said Dr. T. H. Moody be accepted said bond approved.

Come on to be heard the petition of Sol Gregory to be relieved from the bond

ry be and is hereby released from said bond, and the said Henry Williams having presented and filed a new bond with
B. J. Jones as surety in place of said Sol Gregory, it is therefore ordered that said Henry Williams bond with B. J. Jones and others to retail vinous and spirituous liquors be and is hereby accepted and ap-Cleave as sureties thereon, which bond is hereby approved, and it is ordered that such a license be granted and issued to the said George Arndt as prayed for in his said petition.

Antonio Franco having filed his petition for the purpose of obtaining a license to retail vinous and spirituous liquors in quantities less than one gallon, at his pearing that his petition is sufficient, that the same has remained on file in the clerk's office for the time required by law, and that his bond is signed by Mrs. Charlotte Goches, P. M. Weed and Peter Geiger, as sureties thereon, which bond is hereby approved, and it is ordered that such a license be granted and issued to said Antonio Franco as prayed for in his said petition.

The Legislature of the State of Mississippi, now in session, having passed an act authorizing this Board to reimburse J.
K. McLeod for county funds stolen from him as County Treasurer, on the night of April 23, 1886, which act has been approved by the Governor, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Board that the loss of said funds was caused by no act of carelessness or negligence on the part of said J. K. McLeod, it is therefore ordered by the Board that said J. K. McLeod be allowed the sum of $217.15, payable out of the common school fund, and the sum of $463 payable out of the general county fund as reimbursement for the money stolen as aforesaid and made good or paid into the county treasury by said J. K. Mc-
